From the Paris Gazette, dated October 3.

Venice, September 12.

L E T T E R S from Brescia and Crema advise, that the Duke of Wirtemberg continues very ill of his Wound at Brescia; but that the Prince of Anhalt is pretty well recover'd. Thirteen Barks laden with Troops, and 10 Field Pieces, are arriv'd at Salo, whence those Troops and Cannon are to be convey'd to the Army of the Imperialists, which 'tis reported is to be reinforc'd by a great Detachment that is to be drawn out of the Army of Prince Lewis of Baden at the end of the Campaign. The Duke of Vendome causes the Passages of the Adda to be fortified, and the Troops that Guard them to be reinforc'd. Just now comes Advice, that Prince Eugene has sent Order forbidding the laying up of any more Corn at Palazzuolo; whence 'tis conjectur'd, that he is preparing to march either to pass the Adda, or if he find that too difficult, to move towards the lower Po, and into the Valleys of the Ferrareze; and then to get Subsistence from the Coast of Croatia. We are inform'd that an extraordinary Quantity of Provisions is got together on the said Coast; that the Inhabitants of Segni are fitting out their Barks for War anew; and that the Legate of Ferrara has reinforc'd the Garrison of Ferrara, and caus'd all things necessary for its Defence to be brought into it. They write from Bergamo, that the Proveditor extraordinry Frangini is arriv'd there, with a Body of Foot and Horse, to oppose the Disorders the Germans commit in that Part of the Country. He has sent Signior Turrietta Major General to compliment Prince Eugene, and complain of the little Discipline his Troops observe.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 6.

Leiden, Oct. 6. Letters from Madrid, dated the 16th of last Month tell us, that the Publick was in great Expectation of the Issue of the Dispute between the King and his Grandees; his Majesty preffing in his Resolution to have the Captain of his Guards sit behind him in his Chappel on a Stool; that the Grandees forbore appearing in the said Chappel; and waited for the Answer of the King of France to whom they had written about this Affair; that the 15th the Troops of Guards had pass'd in Review before the Palace; that it was talk'd a Detachment of them would be order'd to march, with some other Troops from about Madrid, to Catalonia; that the Duke of Medina Celi having written to the Stewards of his Estates in Catalonia, to exhort his Tenants or Vassals to take Arms for King Philip V. the said Tenants had return'd Answer they acknowledg'd no Sovereign but King Charles III. and that if he the said Duke of Medina Celi did not think fit to follow their Example, they would not acknowledge him to be their Lord: That the said Duke communicated this Answer to King Philip; and that the King had sent Order to the Viceroy of Catalonia, to publish a general Pardon for all the Malecontents of that Country who shall lay down their Arms and return to their respective Dwellings, their Ring-Leaders excepted.

Amsterdam, October 6. The States of the Province of Utrecht have receiv'd Complaints from the Magistrates of Nimeguen about a Lieutenant Colonel, who was in that Town during the late Troubles about 2 Months ago, and who refuses to take Orders from the said Magistrates. The said States finding upon Examination that the Case of this Lieutenant Colonel falls more properly under the Cognizance of the Council of State at the Hague, have referr'd it thither. The Princess of Friseland has sent to the King of Prussia a Proposal for accomodating the Difference between them about the Succession or Inheritance of the Estate of the late King William. She offers to give his Prussian Majesty all the Estate of Prince Frederick Henry, and an Equivalent for what the Princess of Anhalt has yielded up to his said Majesty; to take on the part of the Prince her Son the Estate that fell to the share of Prince Maurice; and then to divide with his Majesty the Estate of Prince Philip eldest Brother of Frederick Henry and Maurice. To this Proposal there is an Obstacle that 'tis fear'd will hardly be got over, viz. by it the Princess will have the two Counties of Meurs and Lingen, as being the Inheritance or Estate of Prince Maurice; which the King of Prussia will not easily part with, because they lye very commodiously for him, and besides he pretends the County of Meurs is a Fief devolv'd upon the Sovereignty of Cleves. These private Affairs are not unworthy relating, because they may one Day be of publick consequence. The States have receiv'd Letters from Admical Allemond dated the 8th of last last Month, which import the Designs upon Catalonia meet with great Difficulties.

London, October 5.

Last Night an Express arriv'd from the Earl of Peterborough, with Letters importing, that the Forces of the Allies had taken Fort Montjoux with some other Out-works of Barcelona; that the Prince of Hesse Darmstadt was kill'd in the Attack of Fort Montjoux; and that his Lordship hop'd to be in Possession of the Town in 5 Days. These Letters were brought by the Neptune Galley, and are dated September 10. O. S.
